

ALEX M. CHONG

46 Heath Street, Richmond Hill, Ontario. L4B 2B5

home: 905.886.7792 mobile: 613.851.6535 email: amc@chongfamily.net www.alexmchong.ca

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a co-operative education position at an design firm, utilising various, interpersonal and technical skills gained from wide background of experience to become a valuable contributor to the design culture.

AVAILABILITY

Available for 12 months beginning September 2010

EDUCATIONAL TRAINING

Carleton University Ottawa Ontario	Bachelor of Architecture Studies, Co-Op Currently Third Year, Azrieli School of Architecture & Urbanism Queen Elizabeth II Aiming for the Top Scholarship; Sprott Foundation Bursary Expected Graduation: 2012	2007 – Present
--	--	----------------

RELATED SKILLS

Technical Skills

- Experienced using AutoCAD modifying and creating AlA-standard architectural drawings
- Fast and proficient skills using Google SketchUp Pro (quick mock-ups to detailed models)
- Detailed 3D model rendering skills using Indigo Renderer in conjunction with Google SketchUp
- Working towards achieving LEED certification
- Familiar with architectural office culture (terminologies, procedures) from previous employments
- Strong working knowledge with photography, graphic design, and website design
- Proficient with Adobe Creative Suite, including Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Dreamweaver

Leadership & Organisational Skills

- Co-Founder of the Makeshift Collective (2009); network of creative young professionals promoting personal development through collaborative challenges, expanding individual and collective creative portfolios
- Founder and Lead of the Youth Studio of Creative Development (2009); life-coaching for high school students to fully harness potentials and maximize creative output
- Chief Coordinator, Chair, and Founder of the Richmond Hill High School Alumni Association (2008); created as a means to connect alumni with the school, students, industries, and each other
- Vice-President of the Azrieli Architecture Student's Association (AASA) (2009 – Present)
- Entrepreneurial endeavours with self-owned business Green Frog Design Studio (2007); improving the brand-image of local small-businesses through the form of graphic design

Interpersonal Skills

Worked with a variety of individuals and groups on numerous occasions, including:

- clients, partners and colleagues at Peter A. Gabor, Architect and CORE Architect Inc.
- one-on-one with multiple small-business owners at Green Frog Design Studio
- numerous correspondences to establish the Richmond Hill High School Alumni Association

Language skills: Basic knowledge in German, Korean, and some French

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Student Volunteer CORE Architects Inc.	CORE Architect Inc. (Toronto, Ontario); Worked with AutoCAD on a variety of client projects – from concept, design development, and construction documents including section and joint details.	2009 June – July
Executive Assistant Peter A. Gabor, Architect	Peter A. Gabor, Architect (Toronto, Ontario); Implemented new procedures to increase in-office communication efficiency;	2008 May – August direct collaboration with associates, clients, and principal architect; personally updated company website

President, Entrepreneur Green Frog Design Studio	Green Frog Design Studio – Partnership with Town of Richmond Hill; Chief designer & owner; focusing on brand-imaging for small-businesses Consulted over 8 small-business owners developing brand-identity	2007 May – August
Sales Associate/Cashier Gap Inc.	Gap & Gap Kids – Hillcrest Mall (Richmond Hill, Ontario); Worked with a variety of co-workers and customers in a retail environment	2005 – 2007
Promotions Assistant Avantis Network	Avantis Network (Toronto, Ontario); Designed and developed company brochures and advertisements, and assisted in multimedia creation of websites at Avantis Network	2004

EXTRA-CURRICULARS, HOBBIES AND INTERESTS (CURRENT)

Associations/Councils	- Elephant Tale (start-up NGO), Board of Advisors (2009 – Present) - Richmond Hill High School Alumni Association, Chief Coordinator & Founder (2008 – Present) - Korean-Canadian Scholarship Foundation's Student Development Committee (2008 – Present) - Royal Architectural Institute of Canada (RAIC), Student Associate Member (2008 – Present) - AASA: Azrieli Architecture Students Association (2007 – Present)
Photography & Video	- Strong interest in portraitures and studio lighting; familiar with full manual controls of SLRs - Familiar B&W film processing, print development, digital RAW format processing - Directed several short videos including "Arrival/Departure" for the Toronto Film Challenge '07 - Working for Carleton School of Architecture's A/V Department as the media lab technician
Graphic Design	- High level of knowledge in digital image creation and manipulation with software such as Photoshop and Illustrator - Familiar with print publication software InDesign, and web design software Dreamweaver - Produced a wide variety of web sites both professionally and as a hobby since 1999 - Created company brand-images (logos, business card designs, website designs, and letter heads) professionally at self-owned Green Frog Design Studio

VOLUNTEER WORK (PREVIOUS)

In-School Volunteer	- Chief Collaborator & Chair of First Year Meetings, Carleton Architecture - CSASS/AASA: First Year Representative	2007 – 2008 2007 – 2008
Co-Operative Education (High School)	High School Co-Op Placement at Peter A. Gabor, Architect - Attended client meetings, worked with AutoCAD, created 3D-renderings	2007 February – June
Global Citizenship Conference	Delivered well-received seminar "Empowering Youth through Creativity" at the York Region Global Citizenship Conference in 2007	2007

AWARDS/CONTESTS

Queen Elizabeth II Aiming for the Top	Queen Elizabeth II Aiming for the Top Scholarship 2007-2008 awarded to recognize students who have shown academic excellence at the high school level	2007 – 2008
Toronto Film Challenge	Made the top-10 list for "Arrival/Departure" at the 48 Hour Toronto Film Challenge	2007

PORTFOLIO

For examples of work please visit www.alexmchong.ca